Dear Paul:

I have your letter of 10 September and want you to know that I have no objection to your listing me as the Honors Night dinner speaker on the program announcement.

I am looking forward with much interest to this occasion and also to seeing you at that time.

With every best wish.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

We are all very pleased with the word received this morning from you that you will be with us on 26 January 1960, barring unforseen contingencies.

Before too long we would like to make a preliminary announcement on our overall program and unless you have any objection we would like to include the fact that you will be our Honors Night Dinner speaker. Please advise on this point.

Kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

S. Paul Johnston
